THANK YOU

Dear Mt. Leo family,

Thank you so much for the prayers & concerns for Tina as she underwent surgery last week. Having the prayer support of the church was such a boost for us, and we cannot say how much we also appreciated the dinners brought to our house throughout the past week.

With much love,
Jamie & Tina Smith

You Can't Be a Christian...

Introduction:

- 1) There are certain things that specifically pertain to our lives as Christians that we can't do without.
- 2) You can't be a Christian without CHRIST.

Discussion:

I. The Prophecy of the Christ.

- A. A Prophet would arise (Deuteronomy 18:18; Acts 3:22; 7:37; Hebrews 3:5).
- B. The O.T. prophets _____ to understand these things (I Peter 1:10f; Matthew 13:17).
- C. People were searching for Him (John 1:21, 25; John 4:25f).

II. The Preparation for the Christ.

- A. He was prepared to come at the proper time (Galatians 4:4; John 1:14; I Timothy 2:6; Romans 5:6).
- B. He would be born through an immaculate birth (Isaiah 7:14; Matthew 1:20ff).
- C. His ministry would be prepared by John the Baptizer (Malachi 3:1ff; John 1:19ff).

III. The Presence of Christ.

- A. When Jesus was _____, He was identified as the Christ (Luke 2:11; Matthew 1:16).
- B. Jesus testified Himself to be the Christ (John 4:25f).
- C. Others saw His fulfillment as the Christ (John 1:29, 35, 41).

IV. The Position of Christ.

- A. God appointed _____ to be both Lord and Christ (Acts 2:36).
- B. God authorized the authority in which Christ possessed (Matthew 28:18; Colossians 1:18).
- C. God gave Jesus as the only avenue for salvation (John 14:6; John 3:16).

Where Have All the "Weeping Prophets" Gone?

Steve Higginbotham

Jeremiah, the prophet of God, has the distinction of being dubbed, "The Weeping Prophet." The reason for such a designation is because Jeremiah prophesied during some very sad times. God had shown Jeremiah what was about to happen to Judah because of their disobedience, and it was disturbing. In fact, Jeremiah pictured God's impending judgment upon his people as "death climbing through a window to take away the inhabitants of the house" (Jeremiah 9:21). What God showed Jeremiah was so disturbing that Jeremiah said, "Oh, that my head were waters, and my eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night..." (Jeremiah 9:1). In short, Jeremiah wept because of sin and its consequences.

The question I keep asking myself today is, "Where have all the weeping prophets gone?" Oh, I still hear and read a lot of condemnation of sin, but I see no tears accompanying the condemnations. I get on social media and see how loudly and widely some condemn others for a variety of matters, yet I see no tears.

I loved the late James Meadows and Tom Holland. These men loved the truth and opposed error. Yet, when they opposed error, on numerous occasions, I saw them weep. They didn't just condemn error; they were heartbroken due to the consequences of error.

This is the kind of preaching we need today. I grow weary of the harsh, vitriolic, sarcastic condemnation offered up by some brethren. I grow tired of the "one-upmanship" I see in religious discussions. I grow weary of truth and error being treated as a mere battle of wits or a game of "gotcha."

Brethren, we don't need preachers who thrive on conflict and who seem to take pleasure in exposing flaws. We need more "weeping prophets;" men who resolutely stand for the truth, oppose error, but who are also heartbroken by the consequences of sin.

If you're looking for a role model, don't settle on the loudest voice condemning sin, rather, find someone who loves the truth, hates sin, and is broken by the consequences of sin. That's the person who will help direct you to the heart of God.

Heavenly Habits

Introduction:

- 1) When we look to Jesus, it's easier to not be so focused on the here and now (II Corinthians 5:7; Colossians 3:1f; Hebrews 12:2).
- 2) The more we pay attention to Jesus, the better we'll become with practicing His habits.
- 3) What habits can we learn from the One who came down from Heaven (John 1:1-2, 14)?

Discussion:

I. Jesus read the Scriptures.

- A. First rejection in _____ (Luke 4:16-31).
- B. Final rejection in Nazareth (Matthew 13:54-58).
- C. The Law and the Prophets (Matthew 5:17).
- D. He knew how to respond when needed (Matthew 4:1ff; I Peter 3:15).

II. Jesus prayed.

- A. Jesus prayed often (Mark 1:35; 6:41, 46; 8:6).
- B. Before the choosing of the _____, He prayed (Luke 6:12).
- C. Before enduring the Cross, He prayed fervently (Matthew 26:36-44; Hebrews 5:7; Luke 22:41-44).
- D. He prayed for unity among His followers (John 17).

III. Jesus engaged people in discussions that mattered.

- A. The Samaritan woman was outside of the social norm (John 4:1ff).
- B. A Pharisee was rebuked in his own house concerning a particular visitor (Luke 7:36-50).
- C. _____ hosted Jesus (Luke 19:1-10).

IV. Jesus spent time with God's people.

- A. He called 12 men to be His apostles (Luke 6:13-16; Matthew 26:17ff).
- B. Even amongst the multitudes, Jesus had disciples with Him (Matthew 12:46-50).
- C. His disciples traveled with Him during His ministry (Luke 8:1-3).
- D. He would even dine with them when possible (Luke 10:38-42; John 12:1-2).
