Words of Thanks

I would like to say thank you (to Trent) for being there and speaking at my mother's funeral. You did wonderful. Also, would like to thank all the members at Mt. Leo for paying their respects. I really can't remember everyone that had come. She was a wonderful and beautiful woman, wife, grandmother and great-grandmother. We all miss her.

??? Quick Quiz ???

Show Me The Money! After watching the rich men cast their gifts into the treasury, how much did Jesus see the poor widow give?

??

Last Week's Question: Show Me The Money! We're birds of a feather and we stick together. Two of us together sold for a farthing, while five of us together sold for two farthings. What kind of birds are we? Sparrows (Matthew 10:29; Luke 12:6).

FOCUS: Discipleship

Faith

Introduction:

- 1) Discipleship and faith go hand in hand.
- 2) What does God expect from me in matters of faith?

Discussion:

I. The necessity of faith.

- A. For the sake of sin (Jn. 8:24).
- B. For the sake of salvation (Mk. 16:16; Jn. 16:31).
- C. For the sake of suitability before God (Heb. 11:5-6).
- D. For the sake of our soul's eternal security (Jn. 3:16; II Cor. 5:7).

II. The clarity of faith.

- A. Those who believe follow the evidence (Heb. 11:1; Rom. 10:17).
- B. Those who believe...
 - 1) Believe in _____ (Heb. 11:6).
 - 2) Believe in Jesus (John 8:24).
 - 3) Believe in God's Word (Mk. 1:15; 16:16).
 - 4) Believe in God's promises (Heb. 11:13).
- C. If you truly believe, you will obey (Rom. 10:16; Heb. 11:1ff).

III. A demonstration of faith.

- A. Paul and Silas were imprisoned in Philippi (Acts 16:16-24).
- B. An earthquake occurred around midnight and Paul saved the Jailor from taking his own life (Acts 16:25-28).
- C. The Jailor inquires about salvation (Acts 16:29-30).
- D. "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household" (Acts 16:31-32).
- E. The Jailor and his household responded by being baptized (Acts 16:33).
- F. "Having _____" he rejoiced (Acts 16:34)!

The LORD is My Shepherd

Trent E. Key

A Psalm of David.

23 The LORD is my shepherd;

I shall not want.

2 He makes me to lie down in green pastures;

He leads me beside the still waters.

3 He restores my soul;

He leads me in the paths of righteousness

For His name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil;

For You are with me;

Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;

You anoint my head with oil;

My cup runs over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me

All the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD Forever.

These words are often shared at the passing of a beloved disciple of Jesus. They offer so much comfort to those who remain. But how often do we stop to consider them before a funeral service?

Ask yourself these questions as you read through the text again. Is the LORD my Shepherd? Have I allowed Him to lead me or am I trying to lead Him wherever I may go? Do I allow for my Shepherd to care for me? Correct me? Love me?

Our Heavenly Shepherd will do all that David recorded in this Psalm, and more! Being a disciple of Jesus is submitting yourself fully to His cause. Will you let Him lead you today? If I can assist you in this decision, please let me know. Have a great LORD's Day!

What Are You Upset Over Now?

Kevin E. Key

Have you ever thought or maybe even expressed the above words, possibly under your breath whenever you've encountered certain people in their times anger? I trust that you have. All of us likely know people like this. We know people who always seem to have a proverbial "chip on their shoulder." They always seem to be upset over something, usually it's trivial matters. What is it that ticks them off?

They fall behind a slow driver on the roadway, which drives them crazy. Their order at McDonalds comes out later than expected; this eats away at their patience. The cashier at the grocery store forgets to take off a coupon; therefore, they go off on this person. This ill-mannered behavior is uncalled for. It is not how adults are supposed to act, and certainly not how Christians are to behave.

If we are honest with ourselves, and with one another, there are probably times whenever you and I have "let things get the best of us." There have been those moments in our lives whenever we have been in a "huff" over nothing. It's easy to see the faults of others but seeing our own irrational behaviors can be a challenge. God expects us, as Christians to keep ourselves in check at all times.

God allows us to be angry, but our anger must be kept under strict control (Ephesians 4:26). We cannot permit ourselves to be out of control, for to do so gives place to the devil (Ephesians 4:27). Yes, the devil wants us to mess up (I Peter 5:8f). But on the other hand, God wants us to succeed. He offers us ways to escape the devil's attempts to drive us away from God (I Corinthians 10:13).

Be angry and sin not! Christians should be angry over all forms of ungodliness. We ought to be angry over...

- The millions of babies that are murdered in our nation through abortion.
- The homes that are destroyed annually whenever couples divorce.
- The growing acceptance of homosexuality in this world.
- The billions of dying souls outside of Christ.

Probably by now you get my point. Brethren, there are enough legitimate reasons for Christians to be angry without us having to get upset over the trivial matters in life. We need to keep our thoughts, mouths, attitudes and actions in subjection to godliness, at all times. Thank you for thinking with me on this critical matter. We love each of you dearly.
